REPORT

TOPIC: "Yerwada Jail Visit"

ATTENDED ON: 30 October 2022

BY
LEGAL AID COMMITTEE

- Faculty Incharge: Ms. Amrita Sanyal, Assistant Professor
- Facilitated by: Ms. Joshita Lamba, Assistant Professor, Ms. Ms. Neha Bhatt, Assistant Professor, Mr. Subhash Pathak, Assistant Professor
- Report Prepared by: Ms. Neha Bhatt, Assistant Professor,
- BACKGROUND
- Reason/Objective-
 - i. To understand prison administration and to gain practical insights into the criminal justice system; and
 - ii. To witness firsthand the issues prevalent in the criminal justice system, fostering a sense of social responsibility and motivating them to work towards positive changes.
- Usefulness- Students get a chance to interact with inmates, correctional officers, and legal professionals, they gain a deeper understanding of how the law operates in practice as well as to witness the complexities and challenges of the criminal justice system.
- Expected Outcome- The expected outcome of the program was to get students practical knowledge about prisons and jails, and issues pertaining to it.

SUMMARY OF THE EVENT

The visit to Yerwada Central Jail, Pune was an educational and informative field trip to gain insights into the prison and jail administration in India. A total of 47 students reported for the visit at Pune.

The students were introduced to the officers along with their ranks and positions who shed light on the various aspects of the jail. The female students were escorted to the female prison, separate from the main jail premises, where the rest of the students were taken on a tour. Before entering the premises, the visitors were scrutinized for security purposes.

The various aspects of the jail premises were explored by students under the guidance of the assigned personnel. The following details were procured as part of the tour:

The main jail premises is spread over 70 acres whereas the whole central jail area is 550 acres. There are 300 security personnels always guarding the jail. Although has the capacity of holding 2500 inmates, the current statistics of inmates present in the jail were 6600. Those accused were kept separate from undertrial prisoners. They were identified with colored bands tied on the arm; red for those who attempted to abscond from the jail and yellow for other convicts. The undertrials were given the provision of being in their civil clothes (either received from their homes or given by the prison administration).

The prisoners are conferred the right to work and occupation and are given wages for their work and receive Rs. 62, 75, 78, depending on the kind of work done. These wages are calculated on daily wages. Undertrial prisoners are not allowed to involve themselves in any kind of labor work. However, all prisoners get an opportunity to pursue their graduation and postgraduation by enrolling with the Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) and Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University (YCMOU).

Other than the cells, there were kitchen area, hospital with doctor available 24x7, indoor playing room, video conferencing room, and an open ground. There was a separate provision for holding juveniles, i.e., those under 18 years of age.

The inmates get an opportunity to speak with their family members and legal counsel through video conference (through Zoom and Google Meet) once in a week for 10-20 minutes. There were in all 12 rooms for this purpose. This information was shared by Constable Subhash Mohan Nilkant. Police Superintendent Balasaheb Salunkhe informed the students that there was a provision for physical meeting as well. The undertrials were allowed to meet once a week whereas convicts could get an opportunity once in 15 days.

The female prison have separate compounds for convicts and undertrials. Each compound had housing cells, kitchen and a place. The women inmates have a provision to work for themselves for their sustenance through handiwork, i.e., diya making, fire sparklers, and small toys which are sold in the market.

The students had an insightful experience in learning about the central jail and returned home with new learnings for the day.

BRIEF INTRODUCTION AND DISCUSSIONS DURING THE SESSIONS

Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law has organised Vidhan Bhavan Visit which is situated in Mumbai, Maharashtra. It is the legislative assembly building of the state of Maharashtra. We firstly met with a security check through police afterwards all the students we get entered into the legislative assembly. Specific seats were allotted to students, further media too have their separate sittings. A fascinating part for the students was the formal protocol followed by the members. They all address the chair of the house, which is called Speaker of the house. They formally speak to each other through the respected Speaker only.

We have witnessed two sessions, firstly of Maharashtra Assembly (Vidhan Sabha) 1 hour, secondly at Legislative Council (Vidhan Parishad). Presently there are 288 members in legislative assembly and the member of upper house, the Maharashtra vidhan parishad are indirectly elected through an electoral college.

It was a wonderful experience in which we got to see the scenic beauty of vidhan Sabha through this visit. The motive behind the educational visit was to introduce law students about the functioning of assembly and provide them an opportunity to observe actual discussion in the house. Students and faculty members interacted and captured a group photo outside the vidhan Sabha bhavan. By visiting and attending the live parliamentary sessions of Mumbai vidhan bhavan, students learnt about how the government is functioning on a very ground level.

(F.Y. LL.B.)

 Edited and updated by: Amrita Sanyal

BACKGROUND

- Reason/Objective- The objective of the visit was to make students aware about the history of the monetary system & banking and also to familiarise them with the day – to – day working and mechanism of the country's central bank – RBI.
- Conducted under- The visit to the RBI was conducted and monitored by Ms. Amrita Sanyal & Ms. Urmila Chauhan for the students to gain better insights about the working of the RBI.
- Usefulness- The visit was interactive, followed by a detailed presentation at the RBI premises which was curated under the Indian Currency Act, 1861. Later in 1935, under the recommendations of the Hilton Young Commission the Reserve Bank of India was established. Along with the minting of coins & notes in various series such as Victoria Portrait Series, King George V Windowed Watermark Series, Green

Under print Series, and Red Under print Series and along with this they also issued Cash Coupons in lieu of small change, as well.

RBI has also printed notes and currencies for Pakistan and Burma, till Burma was captured by the Japanese till 1942 and for Pakistan till 1949.

We officially have 4 locations of RBI mints: Mysore, Nasik, Salgani & Dewa.

BRIEF INTRODUCTION AND DISCUSSIONS DURING THE VISIT:

Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law (TRCL) organized a day's visit to the Reserve Bank of India's Monetary Museum located at Fort in Mumbai, India.

It showcases the history of money banking and development of finance in India. The museum has a collection of various periods of coins, currency notes, and exhibits that explain the evolution of banking in India.

The exhibits cover the topics such as :

- Colonial History of Banking in India
- The Role of Reserve Bank of India in the Formation of Monetary Policy In India.
- And the process through which money is manufactured by the Central Bank of the nation.

The RBI Monetary Museum is divided into several sections, each covering different aspects of money and banking history in India.

One section houses a display of rare coins spreading across the Harappa period to the Gupta period to the Mughal Era at large, as well as the coins circulated during the British Era.

Another section displays the various types of currency notes, including the first set of Indian Banking Notes by the RBI in 1938.

The museum also features exhibits that demonstrate how currency is printed and the coinage is minted.

Moreover, visitors can also learn about the functioning of the Central Bank and its role in the Indian Economy.

Overall, it is a well – curated museum that offers a comprehensive understanding of Indian monetary history and its evolution.

BRIEF INTRODUCTION AND DISCUSSIONS DURING THE SESSIONS

Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law conducted a Visit of 26th May 2023 on the to give students an overview on working of Family Court (BKC).

Convenor for the visit was our respected Adv. Sasidharan K. Nair. The students assembled at 11.15 AM at Family Court.

Then Prof. Amrita Sanyal addressed the students by mentioning the chronicles of Family laws in India and how the law came into action. Adv.Sasidharan K. Nair also mentioned how the law faced difficulties before its enactment. He continued by providing all the major features of the law and highlighting the advantages of the same. He continued by further explaining the working and structure of Family Court.

He then mentioned various issues that come to the Family Court and how those are dealt by the court. There are various issues that are dealt in Family Court any dispute between Husband wife and Parents. He cleared the concepts by giving practical examples. Further, he talked about the major problem arising in families which create disputes. Further continuing he added, how the fundamental rights play major role in delivering justice. She then spoke about the transparency that is maintained in the legal proceedings because of this law, and continued to talk about the awards and punishment that were provided by the cases in (Domestic Violence).

He then concluded the session by stating the major case laws from Supreme Court and Different High Courts that created the ground for resolving major issues like abolition of teen talaq triple talaq and maintenance to Muslim women after divorce.

Several questions were raised by the students & the same were briefly answered by our respected convenor. Further the students had a great and profound discussion with a respected Principal Judge, Family Court serving bench at family court. She cleared many doubts regarding the formation of Uniform Civil Code, cases of Domestic Violence that stands as ground for divorce and various divorce issues. At the end we went to Metropolitan Court where we saw how proceedings take place, how judges serve their bench and how decorum of court is maintained.
