Mentorship Programme Policy

Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law, mentoring might be seen as a tactic that students need to meet their learning objectives while receiving both practical and emotional assistance. Thus, faculty help will be included in the student mentorship program members serving as "Mentors" to each and every college student. Every student will have a "Mentor" to help them get over obstacles and accomplish their academic career goals.

The purpose of student mentoring is to-

- To improve the rapport between teachers and students.
- To boost student's academic performance and attendance.
- To reduce the percentage of dropped students.
- To keep an eye on the discipline and regularity of the students.
- To give parents access to information regarding the ward's regularity of performance.

Procedure followed by college to conduct mentor- mentee relation

- The initiative to initiate student mentoring had come from the IQAC. Both the study streams and the core subjects are used to categorize students. There are 20 to 25 students in each group.
- After gathering all the information, mentors update and maintain the mentoring format.

- Each faculty member has 20–25 learners. Till they pass out, learners will serve as the preceptors.
- The HODs of the corresponding phases personally supervise the repeater batch students. The principal will assess the Mentorship Program in the academic audit.
- The program determines the issues facing the student and offers a remedy; it also identifies the obstacles to the student's academic advancement. They receive psychological and spiritual assistance, which helps create a welcoming environment for learning.
- This system has been useful in identifying slow and advanced learner ad through a careful examination of each mentors report the college has organized 'Remedial Classes' in identified topics.
- Every pre-clinical, para-clinical, and mentoring program diary is kept. The student's personal information, including parent contact information, is kept on file in the diary. Information on Academics, Theory and Practical Attendance, Model, University, and Remarks, as well as Examinations, are all included.
- Information about the mentee's health, social issues, and mentor action is documented for further analysis.
