THAKUR RAMNARAYAN COLLEGE OF LAW organized a court visit on 9th August 2019. The purpose of the visit was to understand the working of a court, the nature of duties of the judicial officers. The visit was to help us understand the role of court in dispensing justice in any case, the role of prosecutors in a case, the way cases proceed in a court, the way judges, prosecutors and defense lawyers handle the case, the relationship of the prosecutors and the police. This gave us an opportunity to understand the actual need of co-ordination in the four pillars of the criminal justice system.

- To understand the working of a court and organization of Public Prosecutor's office
- The nature of duties of the judicial officers
- To help us understand the role of court in dispensing justice in any case
- Filing of charge sheet
- To observe how Public Prosecutor is opening cases
- Role of Public Prosecutor on the point of framing charge
- Role of Public Prosecutor in recording statement of witness
- Role of Public Prosecutor in cross examination
- Role of Public Prosecutor in recording the statement of Investigating Officer and expert.

- Role of Public Prosecutor in submitting charge sheet
- To understand how processes are issued and delivered
- To understand the role of a court clerk.

All the students were told to report at 10:00 a.m. As, we reached the court we had to go through the security checking. The security at the entrance was tight. We had to pass through a metal detector and our bags were passed through a screener. Anything suspicious was checked. There were hundreds of ordinary people like us talking among themselves and with lawyers. Some were getting their case papers typed. While everyone was busy only we seemed a bit lost, literally and figuratively.

We were divided into 4 groups and entered into respective court rooms and quietly sat down on the audience bench. After all, it was the highest seat of law, and we were strictly instructed to maintain decorum. We were amused to see dozens of advocates moving to and fro, while some just sitting waiting for their turn.

After that, we were showed and explained how the court actually functions. To begin with, is the Affirmation Department where a where a plaintiff has to first file a case, known as a 'civil suit'. Here, our case papers have to be signed in front of a court officer, to confirm that it is us who are filing the suit. Filing the criminal cases is taken care by the police.

From there, the case papers are passed to the Lodging or Board Department. The officers there, known as associates of judges, verify the papers and see if anything objectionable is to be deleted from the papers. Once the mistakes are rectified, a 'Pukka' number, or the case number is given. Which means our case is now ready to be heard in the court. We then saw the Probate Department, which deals with the cases on personal and commercial wills. If we want to get a particular will executed, we have to file an application in the high court, and get a succession certificate. Only then can we get the benefits of the will.

The visit was very prestigious and knowledgeable!!!!

YERWADA JAIL VISIT HELD ON 08 th FEB 2020

REPORT ON YERVADA JAIL VISIT

08th FEB 2020

ORGANISED BY

THAKUR RAMNARAYAN COLLEGE OF LAW

BACKGROUND

Reason/Objective- To provide students opportunity to visit a correctional facility to dispel any myths that have been created or fostered by the media.

- Expected Outcome - Visit adds that real world experience to what we talk about in the classroom.
- Expected to increase- Students are expected to increase their awareness with respect to jail prisoners and their rights.

BRIEF INTRODUCTION

On 08th Feb 2020 our day started at 6:30 am. By this time, we were expected to board the bus that was to take us to the Yerwada Central Jail, Pune. With one stoppage on the Mumbai-Pune Highway, we proceeded on our way to the jail. We reached there by 11am. Our visiting time was fixed from 11:00 am to 02:00 pm. It included the lunch break. Our bus stopped in the parking area of the Central Jail where we were given instructions to leave our gadgets and bags in the bus and only take our ID proofs with us inside the jail. We first went to the main Yerwada Jail where male prisoners are kept. The jail is fortified by high walls on each side. The outer walls being grey in colour give it a grim look. As we enter the huge gates, we form two lines. The main entry gates have the colours of blue and yellow stripes. As we enter the main set of huge gates, we are met with a set of male and female jailers. One set check each and every person in the line and the other set of jailers take charge of our group. Then we have to enter another set of gates before we get to see the inside of the jail. Though the outside of the jail with its tall wall and huge gates makes for one grim picture but the insides of the jail are another story. The Walls on the inside have been decorated with graffiti that contains inspirational quotes and drawings done by the prisoners themselves. We were first guided to the place where the famous Poona Pact was signed between Ambedkar and Gandhiji in 1932. That area has been conserved and turned into a museum with paper cuttings of that era with the headlines about the Poona Pact. It also showcases Gandhiji's charkha.

Principal

Then we were escorted to the kitchen area where the prisoners were preparing that day's lunch for themselves. The food was quite edible. We took a round of the kitchen where we saw a couple of big machines for preparing flour dough in good quantity. Then we saw the convicted prisoners standing in a line, either dicing vegetables or making rotis.
