MESSAGE FROM THE TRUST

Dear Readers,

The launch of Vidhi Varta is yet another monumental occasion in our College's commitments and quest for assuring dynamic changes in society. We believe in imparting quality-oriented education with the best infrastructural facilities, nursing environment and the right academic ambience.

SHRI. V.K. SINGH

Chairman

Don't limit your challenges, challenge your limits.

We are committed to providing a unique platform to students of diverse backgrounds, enabling them to become value based leaders and responsible citizens in a global dimension. We congratulate all the students and take immense pride in announcing the release of Vidhi Varta, Volume I, Issue 1 and wish all students the best for their future.

SHRI JITENDRA R. SINGH

Secretary

We would like to congratulate all the students for their respective achievements in various competitions and activities.

Without continual growth and progress, words such as improvement, achievement and success have no meaning. We are committed to impart quality education, thereby making Maharashtra a competitive state and transforming India into a contemporary nation.

SHRI RAMESH R. SINGH

PRINCIPAL'S COMMUNICATION

Dear Students,

It is with great pleasure that I announce the release of "VIDHI VARTA", the quarterly newsletter of Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law, Mumbai. For the last three years, Vidhi Srijan has served as a platform for students to articulate and express their writing and analytical skills in the form of essays and poems in English, Hindi and Marathi.

To continue this commitment, Vidhi Varta aims to disseminate information about all achievements of our students in various activities and competitions. It will also give the readers an overview of all the events and activities that have taken place in our college on a quarterly basis. Even during the pandemic, Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law, Mumbai continued to engage in a range of activities and in the holding of webinars. Our students, across classes, successfully participated and have secured diverse achievements to their merit.

This Issue publishes the following events and achievements that have taken place in the Academic Year 2020-21:

- Snapshot of the events/ webinars hosted
- Achievements of students in the field of research and publications
- Curricular and Extra-curricular activities
- Moot court achievements
- Academic honours

With an aim of providing an opportunity to our students to hone their research and writing skills, Issue 2 of Volume I of Vidhi Varta will be accepting submissions from students on contemporary topics. In the event you wish to contribute, you may email your submissions to vidhi.srijan@trcl.org.in Detailed guidelines in this regard will be shortly released by the Magazine Committee.

I hope the achievements of students reflected in this Issue will inspire all students to participate in various activities. I wish each one of you the very best.

MAGZINE COMMITTEE FOR AY 2021-2022

MESSAGE FROM EDITORS

Hello, and welcome to the first edition of the Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law's quarterly newsletter 'Vidhi Varta'. First of all, we extend our warm and heartfelt greetings to all the readers.

TRCL from the very beginning has had a strong commitment to building intellectual and vigilant lawyers and citizens as a whole for our country who can effectively give back to society, and with this goal, the institution along with its associates have successfully trained and mentored students from all facets to make good of all the opportunities with a legal standpoint for the ultimate upliftment of the neglected. We are joyous to announce that though our Institution is only a few years old, it has been able to achieve great success in every field its members have set to endeavour and it is our Institution's concrete belief that acknowledgement and reward encourages everyone alike to do better and become the best.

Our Institution's mission is, "To offer accessible quality legal education, training, research, and innovation and cultivate the intellectual discipline, creativity, and critical skills that will prepare its students for the highest standards of professional competence in the practice of law in a global environment." In keeping with this mission, the newsletter aims to report our Institution's initiatives with respect to knowledge enlightenment through Guest Lectures and Webinars, research and publications in esteemed journals by the students, achievements in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities along with the academic achievers. Majorly, the objective behind this effort is to encourage and acknowledge the students to know their capabilities and master their profession and skills. Vidhi Varta will always be ecstatic to report all the activities undertaken by the Institution and its member associates.

We have marked the beginning of this new journey with a lot of hope in your capabilities and vision and it can become successful only with your support and active participation.

Thank you all and may we all grow and flourish!
