PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"Every student is unique and we are committed to extracting and molding that very uniqueness". Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law, since its conception, has created a student-centric milieu. Upholding the ideals of Thakur Educational Trust, the staff and faculty have always strived to provide a thriving ecosystem to the exceptionally talented individuals from different backgrounds, experiences, interests, ambitions, approaches, methodologies and perspectives.

With a balanced approach between academic, co-curricular and extra-curricular events and activities throughout the year, our students are encouraged to lead, participate and channelise their energy and talent. As a frontier institute imparting legal education to the future decision-makers and builders of our nation, we take immense pride that each member here, faculty and administrative staff, contributes through dedication, hard work and a never-ending quest for excellence. From offering state-of-the-art infrastructure, including the Moot Court and Vidhi Chhatra Sansad, to innumerable workshops, seminars, internships and placements, we aim at enhancing their awareness of the world, of work, accelerating personal maturity, self-awareness and the ability to articulate, and creating a large footprint of this Law School for generations to come. Hence, as diverse is our body of students, so is the exposure we provide alongside the requisite legal knowledge and expertise, since the onus lies in the fact that we are not just offering individuals who are legally emboldened but also are responsible citizens who are empathetic, ethical and earnest towards the society. On behalf of the Management, faculty and administrative members at TRCL, I welcome you to experience the values and customs of Thakur Educational Trust that has us going and will lead us to the future we intend to build together.

ATTENDANCE

University Ordinance 6086 [Circular No. UG/01 of 2014 dated 5th May 2014]:

1. There shall be the Attendance Committee, for smooth conduct of this ordinance, in every college/ institute/Department of the University comprising of at least three members (to be nominated from other departments in case of the University Departments having less than 3 teachers), the Vice-Principal/ Senior Teacher (Convener) and at least two more teachers ensuring representation of the concerned faculties, nominated by the Principal/Director/Head.
2. Every bonafide learner shall ordinarily be allowed to keep terms for the given semester in a program of his enrolment, only if he fulfils at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the attendance taken as an average of the total number of lectures, practicals, tutorials etc. wherein short and/or long excursions/field visits/study tours organised by the college and supervised by the teachers as envisaged in the syllabus shall be credited to his attendance for the total number of periods which are otherwise delivered on the material day(s). Further, it is mandatory for every learner to have min 50% attendance for each course & average attendance has to be 75%.
3. The same ratio shall be applied for computing the attendance of the learners by crediting the number of periods which are missed while participating in an extracurricular / co-curricular activity / competition / camp/workshop/ convention / symposium/seminar etc. where the said learner is officially representing the college University / District / State/Country with permission of the Principal/Director / Head of the College Institute/ University Department or by the direction of the University Officer as the case may be wherein for the purpose of computing the average attendance the periods missed for what is envisaged here-in above, at Sr. No 2, shall be deemed to have been attended by the said learner.
4. Without prejudice to what is stated here-in-above, the Principal / Director/Head of the concerned College/Institute/Department of the University shall be the competent authority to condone the absence of any learner further up to additional 25, if deemed fit and on recommendation of the attendance committee of the said college/ Institute/ Department of the University, wherein it is mandatory on the said committee to do natural justice by giving personal hearing to every learner falling short of minimum attendance for keeping terms and recommending case by case to the competent authority having verified the genuineness and gravity of the problem that justifies the learner to remain absent, which generally shall be limited to his own sickness, sickness of his parent, death of his parent etc. supported by valid evidence, documentary or otherwise.

IDENTITY CARDS

Students shall have their identity cards on them while they are in the College premises, and shall produce it whenever required by any member of the College staff. Every student must show his identity card to the security personnel at the gate, failing which he/she may not be allowed to enter the college premises. OTHERS

Students shall abide by all general or special rules made by the college authorities regarding the conduct of the students both in and outside the college and the decision of the college authorities shall be final. Parents and guardians are also presumed to have agreed that their wards shall be bound by these rules when they join the college.

Students are required to dress decently. The students are directed, and their parents requested to ensure that in this respect they must bear in mind that the students must turn out in keeping with the serenity that one associates with an educational institution and with the one associated with law.

Use of cell phones is strictly prohibited. Students found using cell phones in classrooms during lectures, library and in the college premises are liable to be proceeded against.

Attendance is compulsory at all examinations and lectures, including seminars, moot court sessions, other college events, etc. The attendance and participation in the seminars, classes, moot court etc. and the progress at the college examinations and overall conduct will be taken into consideration while deciding their eligibility for the university examination. Conduct of the students in the class as well as in the premises of the college shall be such, as to cause no disturbance to fellow students or to other classes.

Students must not loiter about or congregate in the college premises while the classes are in progress. Students shall do nothing either inside or outside the college that will, in any way, interfere with its administration.

Students must take proper care of the college property and help in keeping the premises neat and clean. Any damage done to the property of the college will have to be compensated by the student.

In the premises of the college or in the name of the college, no Society, Association, Organisation etc. shall be formed or collection be made, tickets be sold, function or meeting be held, person be invited to address students, should be arranged nor anything be printed, notice be up on the notice board nor announcements be made without the permission of the Principal.

Students should, in their own interest, read notices placed on the notice boards and website from time to time.

All meetings, functions, programmes etc. must be organised / conducted only under the supervision and control of and presided over by the Principal or by any other staff member authorised by the Principal. Students must not engage themselves in any political work in the college premises. Students should not communicate, without prior permission of the Principal, any information or write about any matter to the Press relating to the college.

If for any reason, the continuance of a student in the college is, in the opinion of the Principal, detrimental to the best interests of discipline of the college, he may direct such student to leave the college.

Students securing admission to the college are required to abide by all the Rules, Regulations and Instructions that may be issued by the College Authorities from time to time and submit to the normal enforcement of the same to the satisfaction of the College Authorities, whose decision in all matters shall be final and the same shall not be called in question on any ground whatsoever.

No excursions, picnics or tours can be arranged without the prior permission of the Principal. The permission may be granted, if an application is submitted by the students to the Principal through the members of the staff accompanying the students, at least one week prior to the scheduled date. The students will have to give an undertaking that they will behave properly and obey all instructions of the staff members' in-charge, going at their cost and consequences. The college will not be held responsible for any untoward incident that may happen on an excursion, a picnic or a tour. When an application for permission is submitted, it will be presumed that the students have taken prior permission from their parents/guardians to join the picnic, etc.

Smoking of cigarettes and other harmful products, chewing tobacco, consuming liquor or any other kind of intoxication is strictly prohibited within the premises of the college. Sale of cigarettes and other tobacco products within the radius of 100 yards of an Educational Institution is strictly prohibited and is a punishable offence under s. 24 of the Cigarettes & other Tobacco Products | Prohibition of advertisement & Regulation of Trade & Commerce, Production. Supply & distribution) Act, 2003, with a fine which may extend up to Rs. 200/-.

STANDARD FOR PASSING THE EXAMINATION:

Students enrolled under 75:25 Pattern (5 Years & 3 Years Programme), in order to pass a course shall have to obtain a minimum of 40% marks in both Internal Assessment & Semester End Examination. [i.e., 10 out of 25 and 30 out of 75 respectively].

In accordance with the University of Mumbai Circular no. Exam / KMK / 1844 / 2018 dated 17th May, 2018, examinations of Semester I to IV of LL.B. (Three Year Course) and Semester I to VIII of B.A.LL.B. (Five Year Course) will be conducted by the respective affiliated colleges on behalf of the University. The remaining examinations i.e., Semester V & VI of LL.B. and Semester IX and X of B.A.LL.B. will be conducted by University of Mumbai.

LIBRARY WORKING HOURS

The Library will remain open between 9.00 A.M. and 6.00 P.M. on all working days. Students must immediately report to the Principal through the Librarian, if he / she loses his / her Reader's Ticket. A new Reader's Ticket will be issued in place of the lost one on payment of Rs. 100/-.

REFERENCE AND STUDY ROOM SECTION

Books placed in the Reference section, such as dictionaries, encyclopaedias, reports, University handbooks, question papers etc. will be issued to a student against his Identity Card only for reference in the library. They must be returned at least fifteen minutes before the Library closes. The books thus issued must not, on any account, be taken out of the Library Hall. A fine of Rs.10/ per day will be charged in case such books are taken out.

Current periodicals as well as the bound volumes of the old periodicals will be made available only for reference in the Library. Students should not remove the periodicals from their places allotted in the Library. Students should claim back and verify their Identity Cards when they return the books.

DIGITAL LIBRARY

Students are not allowed to use the digital library during the lecture hours. Students are not allowed to consume food and/or beverages (except drinking water). The Students are prohibited from viewing pornographic material, playing games, hacking into networks & other computers, spamming, etc. Sending junk mail & causing any short of damages to I.T. Infrastructure in the digital library or in College Premises.

METHODS OF TEACHING AND LEARNING
