BACKGROUND

Reason/Objective: The one day seminar on “ Changing Contours of Law in Contemporary India – An experts insight” organized with the objective of providing a forum of discussion by the panel of experts on the complexities of modern legal developments in India. This seminar also addresses and signify the legal issues and provide recommendations across a broad legal range.

Topic and Discussion : The one day seminar was divided into three sessions, by three different speakers:

Speaker 1: Dr. Vaishali Arora

Speaker 2: Adv. Afroz Shah

Speaker 3: Prof. ( Dr.) Jai Shankar Singh

BRIEF INTRODUCTION AND DISCUSSION OF SESSIONS

Session 1

Speaker: Dr. Vaishali Arora (Associate Professor of Law, Sharda University, Greater Noida UttarPradesh).

Topic: Censorship of motion picture in India

The first session of National Seminar starts at 10:00 am and was in a Online mode with both external and internal ( students of TRCL ) participants by Dr. Vaishali Arora. Our honorable chief guest was welcomed with a speech by Siddhant Ojha ( Student S.Y.B.L.S/L. L.B) and was felicitated by our Principal Sir, Dr. A.K. Singh .In this session we understand and learned more about legal censorship, the difference between legal censorship and extra legal censorship. The session was overall about the restriction which are needed because of some societal morals and law's which are impacted due to vulgarness and any content which may be inappropriate or controversial topic in eyes of our society. In this session we also get to know about some new articles ,sections ,and acts ( for eg. Censorship Act 1952). As the session was interesting, participants asked many more questions such as;What kind of parental guidance should be taken by parents if there kids are watching adult movies? and Why do the Tax fees of Controversial movies (:for e.g. Kerala story) should be not applicable? . At the end of the session Dr. Vaishali Arora ma'am also shared here email I'd among the participants, who may ask her questions by emailing her by themselves. At the end of the session – 1 the vote of thanks which was dedicated to our guest speaker was given by Niyati Yadav ( Student T.Y.B.L.S/ L.L.B) and ended by 11:30 am.

Session 2

Speaker: Adv. Afroz Shah ( L.L.M. Gold medalist, counsel , Bombay high court , Champion of the Earth, United Nations).

Topic: Sustainability (Justice for all species)

Our second season of National Seminar starts at 12:00 pm at the Seminar Hall of Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law and was also conducted online ( Live session) for our participants who are not able to come at the Venue for the session. A welcome speech was given by Isha Gahalyan ( Student T.Y.B.L.S/ L.L.B ) .Adv. Afroz Shah is environmental activist and he is best known personality for organizing world's largest beach clean-up project was firstly felicitated by our principal sir. Dr. A. K. Singh in seminar hall of Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law. He also communicate with our students about cleanliness, strategies to prevent from microplastics and ended up by taking a pledge, which was very provocative for our students. A speacial Vote of thanks which was dedicated to our guest speaker for Session – 2 was given by Vinayak Rai ( Student S.Y.B.L.S/ L.L.B) and was ended by 2:00 pm.

Session 3

Speaker: Prof ( Dr.) Jai Shankar Singh ( Professor of Law and Dean, Faculty of Law, Allahabad University)

Topic: Expanding Horizons of Human rights under Indian Constitution

Prof ( Dr.) Jai Shankar Singh was warmly welcomed by the speech given by Shweta Yadav ( Student T.Y.B.L.S/ L.L.B ) and was felicitated by Asst. Professor Shovonita Acharjee. The constitution of India guarantees basic human rights to each and every citizen of the country which includes Right to freedom of speech and expression, assembly, association or union, movement, residence, and right to practice any profession or occupation but in this seminar we get to know something beyond this as the topic itself was to “Expanding Horizons on Human rights under Indian Constitution”. His talk not only gave us knowledge about Human rights under Indian Constitution but also taught us how to think like a Lawyer’s. Many questions were asked in this seminar and new topic like Rights for LGBTQ community was also raised in this session. The session was ended by 3:30 pm by Vote of thanks by our Principal sir Dr. A.K. Singhand Asst. Professor Shovonita Acharjee by thanking all our chief guest, participants, faculties, media team, and volunteers and to each and every person who made this National Seminar a grand success.

 IQAC & DEPARTMENT OF UPELONS LEARNING AND EXTENSION (DLLE)

About the College:
 Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law (TRCL), empowers its students with knowledge, skills and vision to meet the challenges and opportunities of a rapidly changing world.

About the Seminar:
 The One-Day Seminar on 'Changing Contours of Law in Contemporary India - An Experts Insight' intends to provide a forum of discussions by the Panel of Experts on the complexities of modern legal developments in India. The topic of discussions are influenced from the broad theme of the Seminar. The main idea behind this Seminar is to create awareness on socio-legal themes in a creative way. A mature legal system must keep up with and shape its fabric in response to changing cultural moralities, technical developments, communication advancements, shifting international relations, new economic and corporate subtleties, and so on. Hence, in order to accommodate or adjust to change, a static legal framework is required.

Objectives:

- This Panel Discussion aims to To address current issues concerning the rule of law and justice.
- To produce concepts on various nuances of law and legal advancements.
- Address significant legal issues and provide recommendations across a broad legal range.
- To facilitate networking among academics, scholars, legal practitioners, professionals, and others.

Eligibility:
 Participation in the conference is open to academicians, researchers, students, practitioners and professionals from the legal domain, as well as other interested learners and students.

REPORT

1stNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON RECENT DEVELOPING TRENDS IN LAW AND SOCIETY- 2018 24th NOVEMBER 2018

The legal system of a country reflects the rules of society. If there is a change social rules then we can say that a change in social law just occurs. Law can be changed due to social condition of any country. We can say that rules had to be change according to the roles of the society. Law also reflects the society, the relationship between law and society are interrelated.

Legal system reflects all the energy of life within in any society. Law has the complex vitality of a living organism. We can say that law is a social science characterized by movement and adaptation. Rules are neither created nor applied in a vacuum, on the other hand they created and used time and again for a purpose. Rules are intended to move us in a certain direction that we assume is good, or prohibit movement in direction that we believe is bad.

Keeping this into mind, this conference aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and research scholars to exchange and share their experiences and research results on all aspects of Law and Society. It also provides a premier interdisciplinary platform for researchers, practitioners and educators to present and discuss the most recent innovations, trends, and concerns as well as practical challenges encountered and solutions adopted in the fields of Law and Society.
