15 Days Door to Door Campaign (Legal Aid Program) & National Youth Day Celebration

On 11th November, 2019 inauguration of 15 days door to door campaign was held at seminar hall. students of Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law pulled up their sock and set out for surveying the residents of not so privileged regions of the city under the guidance and with the assistance of the Para Legal Training program in association with Global Care Foundation under District Legal Services Authority.

The survey included the basic details of the people and some not so intricate details in relevance to their society such as the documents possessed by the members of the house, if any person of the family is involved in a legal matter and other such questions. The students also interacted with the families making them comfortable to share some private problems, too.

It was quite an amazing opportunity to the students as they received a good exposure to the practical world and got to learn how to interact with the people of the society.

There were around 80 plus students who volunteered for the same.

Around more than 7000 forms of survey were successfully filled.

The certificates of appreciation were handed over to all the students on the National Youth Day celebrated on 13th January 2020 by some prestige guest of honors.

So, in all, it was an experience enriching program!

Introduction: The Legal Aid Committee of Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law organized a commendable initiative under the banner "Save Mangroves, Save Mumbai" with a focused Versova Beach Clean-Up Drive on the 25th of February 2018. The objective of this event was to raise awareness about the critical importance of mangroves, environmental conservation, and the role that legal activism can play in safeguarding Mumbai's coastal ecosystems.

Background: Versova Beach, once synonymous with pollution and debris, has undergone a transformative journey due to the relentless efforts of local communities and environmental activists. The "Save Mangroves, Save Mumbai" campaign aimed to contribute to this ongoing restoration process while also emphasizing the legal aspects related to environmental protection.

Event Highlights:

1. Educational Workshops: To kickstart the event, the Legal Aid Committee organized informative workshops on the legal framework surrounding environmental protection. Legal experts and environmentalists were invited to speak about the legal rights and responsibilities of citizens in safeguarding natural resources, particularly mangroves.
2. Beach Clean-Up Drive: The main highlight of the day was the hands-on beach clean-up activity. Participants, including students, faculty, and volunteers, actively engaged in removing plastic waste, debris, and other pollutants from Versova Beach. The clean-up drive not only contributed to the visual improvement of the beach but also served as a practical demonstration of the collective impact of community-driven initiatives.
3. Awareness Campaigns: Concurrently, the Legal Aid Committee organized awareness campaigns along the beachfront. Informational posters, banners, and pamphlets were distributed, elucidating the importance of mangroves in maintaining ecological balance, preventing coastal erosion, and providing habitat for diverse marine life.
4. Legal Consultation Desk: A legal consultation desk was set up, providing attendees with the opportunity to seek advice on legal avenues for environmental protection. This served as a unique platform for individuals to understand their rights and learn about legal mechanisms available for addressing environmental concerns.

Impact and Future Endeavors: The "Save Mangroves, Save Mumbai" Versova Beach Clean-Up Drive witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and the local community. The event not only left Versova Beach cleaner but also empowered individuals with knowledge about their role in environmental preservation. The success of this initiative has paved the way for future endeavors by the Legal Aid Committee to integrate legal awareness and activism into environmental causes. Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law remains committed to fostering a sense of responsibility among its students and contributing to the larger societal goal of sustainable and ecologically responsible living.

Conclusion: The "Save Mangroves, Save Mumbai" initiative was a testament to the college's commitment to social responsibility and the integration of legal education with practical, real-world issues. By combining legal expertise with environmental activism, Thakur Ramnarayan College of Law has taken a significant step toward creating socially conscious and environmentally responsible legal professionals.
